

17th Latin American Infrastructure Leadership Forum Participants Logistics Information

July 31 – August 2

Venue Location:

Centro de Eventos e Convenções Brasil 21
Setor Hoteleiro Sul Quadra 06 Lote 01 Conjunto A Bloco G
Brasilia, Brazil

About the City:

Brasilia is the federal capital of Brazil. This city is located atop the Brazilian highlands in the country's center-western region. It is Brazil's 3rd most populous city and the most populous Portuguese-speaking capital city. All 3 branches of Brazil's federal government are centered in the city, and its international airport connects it to all other major Brazilian cities and many international destinations. Brasilia is known for its unique city plan and architecture.

Typical Weather:

Brasilia's climate is classified as tropical. It tends to be warm year-round due to its altitude. Temperatures vary little throughout the year. Since the forum will be taking place around the beginning of August, it will be warm, sunny, and dry.

- Average daytime temperature: range from 25- 28° C (77-82° F)
- Average nighttime temperature: range from 13-15° C (55-59° F)

Dress code:

Business attire.

Language:

Simultaneous translation in English, Portuguese, and Spanish will be provided in all Forum main sessions.
